

Concerning the Indiana No Call list. It is a great idea that has worked well to eliminated the nuisance solicitor calls. They have diminished to a just a very few calls. My Mother still receives too many calls from the phone companies, even while she is on the list of the Attorney General. Thanks for your consideration